

TAMESIS CLUB SAILING TRAINING 2015

Courses led by Chief Instructor Eric Finlaysone

Assistant Instructor Course

For Tamesis members wishing to assist in RYA sailing training courses (as will be offered by Tamesis in 2015). Assistant Instructor is the first stage towards becoming a qualified Instructor, for which a season's practical training work will be required after the Assistant Instructor course.

Dates: Sunday afternoons 08/15/22/29 March

Cost: no charge for instruction

RYA Level 1 Sailing Course

For members and in particular non-members who are interested in training to start sailing. This course begins just 2 weeks after the Tamesis/RYA "Push the Boat Out" Open Day when the club hopes to welcome members of the public new to sailing.

Dates: Sunday afternoons 24/31 May, 07/14 June

Cost: to be advised

RYA Level 2 Sailing Course

For members and in particular non-members who are interested in consolidating basic sailing skills taught at Level 1. This course is a natural follow-on from Level 1.

Dates: Sunday afternoons 28 June, 05/12/19 July

Cost: to be advised

For all the above courses, please apply by email to finlaysone2@aol.com

Further training

It is the intention of the club to offer RYA courses in seamanship, spinnaker work, sailing racing, and powerboat handling. Announcements will be made on the web site and at the clubhouse.

Alan Green, Rear Commodore (Sailing).

January 2015